

2018 Summer Reading Theme: Libraries Rock!

Colon Township Library 2018

Summer Fun Events

Kids ages 4-11 are invited to join us for these free summer fun events. Don't forget to register for our Summer Reading Program to win cool prizes!

- June 15th 11 am Summer Reading Kick-off Event with Paleo Joe
Paleontologist, Author, and Storyteller will take the students on a wild ride through the ancient world while describing and reinforcing reasons necessary to read.
- Note: If you can't make it, stop by the library any day after the kick-off to sign-up for the Summer Reading Program
- June 19th 11 am Meteorologist, Christina Anthony. Christina will be here to talk about what it's like to be a meteorologist and take questions from the kids.
- June 22nd 11 am the Godfather of Local History, Mr. Joe Ganger.
Mr. Ganger will be here to give the kids a short history lesson about Colon, Mi. Popsicles will be handed out to all kids that attend! Please enjoy these outside the building.
- June 29th 11 am Fab Magic Show in the Smith Room. Riley the Rabbit to make an appearance!
- July 13th 11 am Colon Rocks! We provide the paint; you provide the rock! We suggest you hide your painted rock in town for others to find and enjoy.
- July 20th 11 am Balloon Sculpting with Mr. Jim Merrill's.
- July 27th 11 am Box Creations in the Smith Room.
Back by popular demand! The library has a large supply of boxes, both small and large. We will make all of the library art supplies (and duct tape) available to you to create your very own piece of box art.
- August 10th 11 am-1 pm Water Safety Event/ Swimming/Picnic at Palmer Lake Beach
A certified lifeguard will provide a short lesson on water safety and provide on-site supervision during the swimming. The Township of Colon is very graciously sponsoring this event. The beach is located at: 58732 Burr Oak Rd, Colon, MI 49040

Attention Parents: This is the last day of the Summer Reading Program. Turn in your Reading Bingo Sheet to complete the program and receive prizes.! We will be announcing the winners of the bike raffle today!
